

IRRIGATION SUPERVISOR JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Irrigation Supervisor

Job Summary:

Oversee the Field Division and Potted Division Irrigation in Hickman, CA. Direct, lead and develop irrigation crew team members to efficiently deliver water and nutrients to multiple ranches.

Primary Responsibilities

1. Creates complete irrigation schedule for multiple ranches in the field division
2. Coordinates water schedules with field crews and Crop Inputs Supervisor
3. Orders surface water schedule from irrigation providers
4. Observes pressure gauges and flow meters and adjusts valves to regulate speed of pumps and control pressure and rate of flow of materials.
5. Troubleshoots and repairs lines with irrigation crews
6. Works with Crop Inputs Supervisor to develop nutrient management programs and implementation of fertigation programs
7. Perform Administrative duties including time sheets, reports and inspection check lists
8. Keep daily records of irrigation
9. Monitor and record pH, EC and temperature levels

Physical Requirements:

1. Ability to use muscles with sufficient strengths to lift, push, pull or carry objects required to do the job.
2. Ability to see details at a distance.
3. Ability to bend, stretch, twist, and reach objects with the body, arms, and legs.
4. Ability to lift 50 pounds.

Working Conditions:

1. Must work out of door under variable weather conditions
2. Must walk on unimproved ground

Experience and Licenses Required:

1. A minimum of one-year experience in an agricultural business, with irrigation experience preferred.
2. Excellent safety record
3. California driver's license

Please submit your resume to julio@davewilson.com