

Assistant Grower – Potted Division

Job Title: Assistant Grower - Potted Division

Job Summary:

Lead staff in the growing and care of our horticultural wholesale potted products. Monitor crop development and oversee all humidity, moisture, and temperature control systems. Lead, train and engage staff in growing, care and maintenance of products.

Primary Responsibilities

1. Develop plant growing activity schedule and assign staff accordingly
2. Set growing production schedules. Record and report trends and opportunities
3. Schedule staff and assign work
4. Train team members in growing techniques and activities
5. Works with vendors to utilize new technology
6. Assist the Greenhouse Division Manager with other duties as assigned
7. Calculate and schedule irrigation, fertilization and crop inputs
8. Ability to foster positive working relationships while creating a safe and fast-paced working environment
9. Follow all company policies and procedures. Other duties as assigned.

Physical Requirements:

1. Ability to use muscles with sufficient strengths to lift, push, pull or carry objects required to do the job.
2. Ability to bend, stretch, twist, and reach objects with the body, arms, and legs.
3. Ability to lift 50 pounds.
4. Ability to work in greenhouse conditions, including high humidity and varying temperatures.

Working Conditions:

1. Must work outside under variable weather conditions
2. 40 hours per week, including some weekends

Experience and Licenses Required:

1. A minimum of 2-3 experience in an agricultural business.
2. Horticulture or Agriculture degree preferred, but not required
3. Ability to use Microsoft Office products, write and read reports in English
4. Must understand the use of boom and irrigation systems, EC and pH readings, the use of injection systems, and the safe handling of crop inputs materials.
5. Bi-lingual Spanish and English is preferred, but not required
6. Excellent safety record
7. California driver's license
8. Ability to work in the US

Please submit your resume to julio@davewilson.com